ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The LL.M. International Class at the Faculty of Law, Universitas Gadjah Mada is one of the leading postgraduate law programs in Indonesia. The program was established to advance the internationalization of legal education, strengthen the competitiveness of its graduates, and connect them to a growing network of universities and legal institutions at home and abroad.

The program specializes in business law with an international orientation. As legal issues in business law grow ever more complex, the market needs lawyers who understand both the letter of the law and its international context. The program develops professionals who combine a strong command of the law with the ability to analyze legal problems from a global perspective.

Courses are taught by academics, legal practitioners, and alumni who are experienced and respected internationally. As an LL.M. student, you gain a strong professional network and a grounding in both international theory and practice that accelerates your career, whether you aim to become a corporate lawyer, in-house counsel, academic, or a leader in the global legal arena. Graduates are equipped for strategic roles across institutions, from multinational corporations to international organizations.

OBJECTIVES

- Produce legal professionals in business law with strong ethics and integrity.
- Produce graduates who advance the development of the law.
- Meet the demand for competent business-law professionals in the public and private sectors, locally, nationally, and internationally.

DOUBLE DEGREE

A dual-degree opportunity is one of the defining advantages of the LL.M. at the Faculty of Law, UGM. Open to holders of a Bachelor of Laws, it allows outstanding students to earn two master's degrees in law, one from UGM and one from a partner university abroad, in about two years and without adding time to their studies. At present, students may pursue a second LL.M. at the Leiden University, with tuition paid directly to each institution. The Faculty is in discussions with further partners to widen these options.

INTERNATIONAL EXPOSURE

Beyond the double degree, the Faculty cooperates with universities worldwide, giving students access to a range of international experiences:

- International exchanges and workshops
- International conference papers
- Publication in indexed journals
- Summer courses and guest lectures
- Internships and research stays
- International electives and competitions

PROGRAM ADVANTAGES

- Dual-degree track: two LLMs, from UGM and a partner university abroad, in about two years.
- Fully English-taught, globally benchmarked curriculum (OBE, KKNI Level 8).
- Specialized in business law with an international focus.
- International opportunities: exchanges, summer courses, internships, and conferences abroad.
- Taught by respected experts, with visiting professors from partner universities.
- Flexible schedule: weekend options; four semesters, completable in three.
- Strong professional network in Indonesia and abroad.
- Career-ready: corporate lawyer, in-house counsel, academic, or global legal leader.

MATRICULATION

Applicants to the non-double-degree program who hold a non-law bachelor's degree or a degree in Islamic law must complete a one-month matriculation before the semester begins. Matriculation is held on-site at the Jakarta Campus, Monday to Thursday, 18:30 – 22:00 WIB, and covers the following courses:
